“ Dear My Beloved Grandmother,
I never got a chance to meet you in person but I have spoke with you over the telephone and you sound just like if you was in your thirties and I would have never knew you was 94 years old, because you was talking about going somewhere out of town (smile) I really wish I was their to see you in person, just to give you a big hug and kiss from me. Me and MaMa Shirley use to talk about her sisters and brothers and most of all you her mother I would of thought I was in your family forever, which now I am. But Grandma you and your daugther Shirley are now together in heaven as our living angels and most of all very near but I just can't touch or see you both. Me and MaMa Shirley would sit and talk for hours and hours about everyone in her family and in my family, and wow I truly miss those days with her, she was just like my own mother to me I will always miss MaMa Shirley forever, I Love you grandma and MaMa Shirley and also my mother MaMa Connie and my Father daddy Conrad Stephens, I know all of you are together now talking and looking at all of your families below heaven, please save a place for us all when its time to come home. I also want to give my special condolences to all of the families that Mrs. Louise Malvina Freeman has left behind, but she is at peace and in a better place smiling down on you all right now. Stay strong and may God Bless you all too; Uncle Osborne Jr., Aunty Joyce, Aunty Betty, Aunty Twana, Aunty Barbara.

“ A wife, a mother, a grandmother too, this is the legacy we have from you. You taught us love and how to fight, you gave us strength, you gave us might. A stronger person would be hard to find, and in your heart, you were always kind. You fought for us all in one way or another, Not just as a wife not just as a mother. For all of us you gave your best, Now the time has come for you to rest. So grandmother go in peace, you've earned your sleep, your love in our hearts, well eternally keep. My grandmother was truly a Legacy Of Love.. I will truly miss you so much my loving grandmother and my prays will always be for you... Your grandson Kevin T.
