“ Dear Family and friends, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ 114 years. Surely, Mrs. Hines had special mightiness. I'm sending my respectful condolence to each of you in the Hines family. May the outpouring of sympathy and the kind acts of friends and strangers give you the comfort needed to endure the days ahead. I am sure the conversations with Mrs. Hines, about the "old days" had to be a treasure to listen to. Our Grand Creator Jehovah knows her DNA to bring her back do life. He promises, "all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear Jesus voice and come out". Proverbs 3:5-7, Isaiah 26:19, Isaiah 41:10 & 13 and John 5:28-29.###imported-begin###Mrs. Malone###imported-end##

“ Dear Family: No matter how old our loved ones live to be, we are never ready to say 'goodbye' to them. They are an integral part of our lives, woven into the fiber of our very being and it becomes a true challenge to move on without them in our lives. I realize that words can offer little comfort at this time, but please, take to heart, that Jehovah is mindful of your tears and pain and he cares very much for you (1 Peter 5:7) His purpose is to destroy death forever (Isaiah 25:8) and to resurrect our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29) Mankind (including your precious one, Louisiana) will then be able to live out their lives to the full the way God originally intended, "...even life forevermore" (Psalm 133:3) free of sickness (Isaiah 33:24) and free of mourning, pain, sorrow, tears and death! (Revelation 21:4) You were so privileged to have her with you for so long, but it is God's purpose and desire that you have her with you forever! (Psalm 37:39). May your hearts and minds be comforted in knowing all things will take place exactly as promised by Him. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Dear Grandmother L Hines, I already miss you. You were such a powerful lady and trully loved God. Your life here on this earth was to do his work for him. You taught plenty people about how he loved all of us. You were so kind and loving. I will always remember how you called me "baby".##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharolyn Bournett & Family,##imported-end##

“ My Darling Great Aunt Lou: I knew you would not always be here...but we had you for so long, I was in denial of your passing. I remember your beautiful smile, sense of humor and the ability to provide wisdom on anything I brought to you. I love you; now you rest with our family that went before you.
