“ Deepest sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one. While few words bring peace during this difficult time, perhaps the words expressed at Revelation 21:3,4 provide you with both comfort and hope.##imported-begin##LaVerne##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: I didn't know Lovie personally, but I can tell by the comments before me that she was very much loved and appreciated. Death is a terrible thing because it separates us from people we love so much. However, our Loving Creator has made provision to eliminate death and to restore our loved ones to us...forever! (Isaiah 25:8, John 5:28,29). While we await the fulfillment of His promises, cherish the precious memories of Lovie. Reflect on the good times you spent with her and the valuable lessons you learned from her. Most importantly, "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.(Psalm 55:22) Take comfort from His Word, the Bible. Rest assured, all that he has promised, he will do (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to the Lovie's family. She was loved by anyone blessed in her care, always a kind word to her co-workers @ Fraser Agency.

When she had a hard decision to make, she would always say, "I will pray on it".

The unquestional love of her Lord, and of her family was the most important in her life.##imported-begin##Donna I. Willis##imported-end##

“ To Sonia, Kim and family,
As you both know she was loved by her clients and co-workers at Fraser Agency. We adored her here, her name was so perfect for the person she was. Everyone here has missed her so much during her illness and the staff were constantly calling to see if we knew how she was and if she was coming back. She will be forever missed and in all of our prayers. God bless Lovie, she is finally at rest.##imported-begin##vickie nichols##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the entire Minter family. My thoughts and prayers are extended to you all at this time of loss. Please take comfort in the love and support from friends and family. Never miss an opportunity to tell your loved ones what they truly mean to you. May you find peace and comfort knowing Mrs. Minter is not having to suffer. I hope the beautiful memories of her life fill you with much joy. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14, 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##

“ KIM AND FAMILY:
I AM SO SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS. I CANNOT BEGIN TO KNOW HOW HURT YOU ARE BUT REST ASSURED YOU HAVE MY MOST SINCERE SYMPATHY. I AM PRAYING THAT THE PROMISED HOPE OF DEATH AND SORROW BEING WIPED OUT AND THAT WE WILL BE ABLE TO SEE OUR LOVED ONES AGAIN IN PARADISE BY MEANS OF THE RESSURECTION WILL BRING YOU COMFORT.
SINCERELY YOUR SISTER;
