“ Mrs Clark (mom) I miss you so much I can't ride down ward st and not being able to see you sitting on the porch.

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more....."

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he "cannot lie."

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring much comfort to you, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future. You have my Deepest Sympathy##imported-begin##Bobbie Smith##imported-end##

“ *I was so sad to hear that your mother had passed. Lucy was such a sweet, kind woman. But after some time spent grieving, I could not help but hear your Dad's larger than life voice and laughter welcoming her. This will be a wonderful reunion for Nate and Lou, I can only imagine. I think of all the fun they had together as well the fun our families shared. God Bless you all, you mean so much to us. “ Dear Clark family, Please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Lucille. I am writing to share the bible's hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he said at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies can he live again..." This is a hope that I have for seeing my mother again, and it's what I wish for Ms. Lucille. May the God of tender be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ I'm writing because I'm terrible sorry about your loss, Mrs. Lucille Clark. I know at this time you are going through a really hard time. I just want to show my sympathy and leave you something encouraging. That best way to do that is to share with you what God as to say I believe that's the only way for you to be truly encouraged. Please read revelation 21:4 from your bible God says soon there will be no more death tears or pain. That will be truly a promising future. I hope this has been encouraging to you. May the god of tender mercy be with you doing this very hard time.##imported-begin##Kelynn Salley##imported-end##

“ With Deepest Sympathy Robin In The Loss of Your Mother

LOVE ONE LOST

*SOMETIMES WHEN WE LOSE A LOVE ONE
SOMEONE THAT WE TRULY DO LOVE
WE MIGHT TURN OUR HEARTS IN OUR SORROW
TO GOD AND THE HEAVENS ABOVE
AND WE ASK LORD -OH WHY DID YOU TAKE LUCILLE
THIS ONE THAT WE DID LOVE SO WELL
AND HE MIGHT REPLY TO US QUIETLY
TO PROLONG HER LIFE WOULD HAVE BEEN HELL
BUT I DIDN'T GIVE LUCILLE TO YOU DEAR CHILDREN
I JUST THOUGHT THAT YOU NEEDED SOME SMILES
SO I BORROWED AN ANGEL FROM HEAVEN
AND LOANED HER TO YOU FOR A WHILE
BUT LUCILLE JOURNRY ON EARTH NOW IS OVER
AND I'VE CALLED LUCILLE TODAY TO COME HOME
AND SHE IS HAPPY WITH ME NOW IN HEAVEN
AND NO LONGER WILL LUCILLE BE ALONE.*

Robin, No one can take away the pain and loss you must feel, but hopefully you can take comfort in the knowledge that your mother is at peace with God. We pray that God strengthens and sustains you with His Love.

We Love You
