“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Simmons family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ To the Simmons Family:

Especially to her children. May I offer my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear mother. Although I didn't know her personally, I can still certainly relate to the loss of a mother for I loss my mother some years ago. Death, at any age, at any time, is a true enemy of mankind because it separates us from those who are so special to us and leaves us devastated! God created man to live, not die (Psalm 36:9) which is why our Loving Heavenly Father has already made provision to wipe out death forever (1 Corinthians 15:26). He also assures us that soon He will "wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more (Revelation 21:4). In the days and weeks ahead as you recall, with fondness, many precious memories of your mother, rest assured that she is in God's memory too, and that soon, God will remember her and she will awaken to life again at His command (John 5:28,29, John 11:11-14). It is my sincere hope that these Bible truths comfort you as they have comforted me over the years, as we all await the fulfillment of God's promises just ahead (Isaiah 55:11, Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Fred Simmons and Family,
Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow,
May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.
Sorry for the loss of your mother. My prayer are with you during the time of your bereavement. Love Pearl Sims###imported-
