“ To the Straughter Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, your precious mother. May the God of all comfort give you the strength beyond what is normal that you may endure this sad time.(2Cor.1:2,3,4) Death, at any age, is an enemy of mankind because it robs us of our loved ones and leaves the the family with unspeakable hurt, helplessness and sorrow. Thankfully, our Loving Creator has promised to destroy death forever!! (1Cor.15:26). He has also promised that the time is coming, very soon now, when 'he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and DEATH will be more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore (Revelation 21:3,4). In the weeks and months and years ahead, as you recall the precious memories of your dear mother, rest assured that she is in God's memory too, and that soon, He will remember your mother and she will awaken at his command (John 5:28,29). This is God's promise to us because he care for us (1Peter5:7). Even though I didn't know your mother personally, my heart is with you and I understand your pain. May your find comfort in these Bible Truths just as I did when I, too, lost my mother. Have faith in His Word, for it will surely come true (Isaiah 55:11, Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ All that knew this beautiful woman, and especially those of us who had the pleasure of knowing her when we were younger were truly blessed. She offered a watchful eye to many children, and the occasional gentle correction if we were doing something we shouldn't. To this day, I can hear her call Stephanie's name! Mrs. Straughter, as we called her, will be deeply missed. Love to all who loved her.##imported-begin##Ann Milligan##imported-end##

“ Our prayers are with you in what may seem like a dark moment; however, "joy comes in the morning". May God continue to bless those of you who called her mother, aunt, friend, grandmother, greatgrandmother. God will hear your cry and your call.##imported-begin##Jacqueline Meniffee/Vickie Fuller/Jamia Meniffee##imported-end##

“ On behalf of the Threatt extended family members we want to express our sincere sympathy for your loss. The loss of a mother is hard but the memories of her will linger on and continue to bring you joy. We pray for your healing and acceptance of God's will. Remember, to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. All in all, we must rely on His word. He will never leave us nor forsake us. We must believe and put our trust and LOVE in HE who holds the key to life and death. With Love--James, Earlene, Brenda, Tony, Vickie, Jackie, and Derrick. --May God be with you and keep you in His arms.##imported-begin##Earlene Threatt Larkin & Threatt Family##imported-end##

“ Delores & Family,

My heart and prayers are with you as you live with the transition of your dear mother. I Pray that you will soon come to a place of joyful words, memories, and funny lovable expressions that your mom shared with you through the years.

Heaven was missing an Angel.

“ *My beautiful angel. Thank you for being so great to my family. You shared your life with us and my father. The time he and I would show up and help in your mother and your garden. I remember as a child growing up Chris, Gregory and I thought you were our grandmother. I can't believe things have moved so fast in life. I thank God you had a wonderful family because in this world we need each too learn from. From your grand and great grandchildren you showed them to stay as one believe and respect each other and God will give you great things. I know Walter is as happy as anyone too know you are in his arms again. My mother sends her love to your family as we pray for them to stand not fall, to love.##imported-begin##Rubin C.
