“ Nayron, my prayers are with you and your family. God gives us love and something to love He lends us. God gave you the ability to love your mother for the time He lended her to you. Now her works are done. She has raised a wonderful son and for that I thankful to her because I had the honor of meeting you. Nayron thank God for memories, now the memories are still alive and well in your heart. I am sure I speak for me, the Drake University Family, the Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. and as well as family and close friends; we are here for you and are just a visit, phone call, email, text, facebook, twitter, and any other form of communication away. Trust God and lean on his everlasting arms my friend, my double brother (in Christ and Fraternity). I love you Monk.

“ Dear Family: It's so hard to lose someone we love so dear to death. It seems so unfair that they should go when we need them so much in our lives. Their death can leave us with much hurt and pain and often feeling lost and bewildered. What has happened to them? Will I ever see them again? The Bible answers those questions at John 11:11-14 where God's Son, Jesus Christ likened death to sleep and John 5:28,29 where Jesus says he will, with his Father's strength and approval, awaken those sleep in death by calling them out from the grave...just like he did his friend, Lazarus. (John 11:41-44; Ecclesiastes 9:10) What a wonderful hope we have of seeing our loved ones again, including your loved one, Lucy Jean. May your hearts find comfort and reassurance in knowing all things will take place exactly as promised by him. (John 11:25) My deepest sympathy to you###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###

“ *We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly; in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again##imported-

“ May the God of all comfort give you the strength you need to endure the days ahead. Death was not what our Grand Creator intended for us - just to live a few years and die. HE created perfect humans and put them in a beautiful paradise. God's purpose will come to fruition. He also will help us if we grab hold of his hand and allow him to get us up each day. Revelations 21:3-5 and Isaiah 41:10 & 13.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ *May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Monk family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-
