“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ Jayson & Julius,
We are so sorry to hear about your mother. Doris was truly a loving, sweet and kind person. I remember when I moved to Lansing, she befriended me without any hesitation. She was there for moral support and comfort. We had a lot of laughs and GREAT conversations. Our prayers are with the both of you and the family. When you see the sun shining, think of your mother's smile, for that's how bright it was. Know that God has you and He will comfort you during this time and the days to come. Love you, Dwight, Gloria, Laneya and James Denning.##imported-begin##Dwight & Gloria Denning##imported-end##

“ We want you to know that our thoughts and prayers are with you and the entire family at this critical moment of your lives. We were shocked to hear the news on Sunday. We know it will be very devastating to you. But we want you to take consolation in the fact that you helped (mom) as much as you could but ultimately God did what is best for her and for you. This is hard to hear of course, but we are praying God to console and comfort you and may His peace which passes all human understanding abide with you. Take heart. God knows all things and He will perfect that which concerns you.##imported-begin##Wole & Bose Okunade##imported-end##

“ To Jayson, Julius, Uncle JD, Aunt Rosalee, Otis, Clinton and Charles. There is no greater love than the love that holds on where there seem nothing left to hold on too. Love never fails, never fades, becomes obsolete or comes to and end. 1 Corinthians 13:8
I will truly miss my cousin. Doris was the oldest granddaughter of the late Floyd and Almary Stanley. Now, I am the oldest. Doris had a smile that would light up the room. She had a funny laugh and love to joke around with her Uncle Dibby. I will cherish many fun memories with Doris. Her first trip downtown in Chicago was on the "L" train to buy Fashion Fair make-up. Doris and I cooked her first Thanksgiving dinner together after she got married. We took a trip to Mississippi to take Jayson and Julius for the first time. As a child, I always looked forward to visiting my "Big Cousins" in Detroit. Very fun memories. Doris loved her family. She was a awesome mother to her children. Jayson and Julius your mother loved you both so much. With Gods grace and mercy, I know you will continue to be the great young men that your mother raised you to be. Keep God first.##imported-begin##Janice Moore-Johnson##imported-end##

“ Jayson and Julius, my sincerest condolences go out to you both. I was fortunate and privileged to know your mother thru Dart Container. Whenever Doris spoke to me on the phone she brought a smile to my face and my heart. She was so special, so warm, so wonderful to talk to, and sweeter than words can adequately describe. I will miss her terribly as I'm sure you will as well. However, my memories of her will last forever. She affectionately said she was my favorite, and she was right. Rest in peace beautiful lady.##imported-begin##Jeff Silverman##imported-end##

“ To Jayson, Julius and the entire Stanley-Vincent family:
Doris and I met as freshmen at MSU. Although we instantly became good friends, I always thought of her as a sister. Doris and I shared a lot of good times together. I miss those long, girlfriend to girlfriend talks,sing-alongs and crazy dance steps we invented back in the day. (:

Why she was called home so soon, only God knows.

One thing I know for sure is that Doris loved being a mother and loved her two sons. They were her pride and joy.

I will always cherish the many memories of the sisterhood that Doris and I once shared. The loving hospitality I received from Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, Otis, Clinton and Charles...the entire Stanley family throughout my college days will never be forgotten.

You shall forever remain in my heart, my memories and my prayers. May the love of God give you peace and the spirit of God bring you comfort.###imported-begin##Sharon Wilson###imported-end##
