“ May your broken hearts be comforted. Our Heavenly Father Jehovah feels the pain that you are going through. He holds out a promise that one day soon he will wipe all tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3-5) Additionally, He promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out. These are some scriptures that have comforted me. Proverbs 3:5-7; Luke 23:43, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14, Isaiah 26:19 & John 5:28-29###imported-begin###Liz Malone###imported-end###

“ Not sure what to say. I've actually been trying to write something on the website for days but the words have not come to me yet. I want you to know that I love you and admire what you did for the family. I will always remember your smile and the sound of your voice when you say my name. Not only do I have my family to get me through this, I have my memories of you as well.

Love,

“ Mom,

You were not only my dear mother, you were also my friend. I learned so much from you about balance in life, peace and devotion. You always said, "Go to church," and you took us when we were young. Oh mom, even though my heart is aching, because I miss you so, I believe in God, because you taught me to at an early age. In my heart, I wanted you to stay here with us longer, because I love you so much, but it is well with my sould, that God wanted you to be with him in Heaven. Mom, you were the right mother for us because you were always there for us. And for that I am forever grateful.

Your loving daughter,
