“ To the Family: It saddens my heart to hear about the death of your loved one. Rest assured, though, that our Heavenly Father knows what you are feeling. He knows that death causes us pain. He assures us that 'he will wipe out every tears from our eyes', and that one day very soon, 'death will be no more' (Revelation 21:4). Also he says he's going to resurrect those who are sleeping in death (John 5:28,29) May you find comfort in the hope held out to us in the Scriptures. My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Dearest Angel,

Although, you are no longer with us, I send to you my silent prayer of love and peace. I know that you are in a better place and your pain and suffering will be non-existence. Auntie, know that you are truly missed, but never, ever will you be forgotten. I will miss seeing you sitting, happily on the porch or hearing your jovial humor with your southern pitch. I pray that our family open up our hearts and hands, and extend our arms out to support and love one another. I pray that we take this unfortunate loss as a wake up call that life is truly ahort and if we claim to love today, that we show it before our tomorrow comes to an end. You are my heart's joy and I will miss you with every thought. Save room for me and tell my beloved grandparents that I will one day be home to join you all. I love you, Auntie L.V. and may you now rest in heavenly peace.

Love you forever,
