“ Dear Family: What a joy and privilege it must have been to have Mrs. Mable with you. What a delight it must have been to listen to her when she spoke of her life's experiences! Truly blessed with a 'special mightiness' from God (Psalm 90:10) I know I can truly relate because I had a grandmother that lived to be nearly 100 years old and I simply loved sitting at her feet and listening to the wisdom that came from her heart. Please accept my deepest sympathy and condolences on your loss, but know too, that God is mindful of Mrs. Mable and he cares deeply for you too. (1Peter 5:7) Jehovah God has promised a resurrection for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29) and also that death, itself, will be destroyed (1Corinthians 15:26). May you treasure the memories of Mrs. Mable and remember the promises of God, for they will surely come to pass (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“Ninety-two years old - I'm sure conversations about the "old days", and Mrs. Minors experiences in life, must have been a joy to listen to. Even though I did not know her personally, I have always had a special fondness for the elderly. There life experiences help me to be the person I am today, in caring for the needs of others. No matter what age a person dies, it still breaks your heart. According to Psalms 90:10, Mrs. Minor had "special mightiness" to live as long as she did. Yet, 92 years is not enough, when our heavenly Father, Jehovah God intended us to live forever in paradise on earth. Mrs. Minor can rest now from death inherited from Adam & Eve, where death ruled as king. (Romans 5:12-21). By means of God's undeserved kindness, He has given us the gift of Jesus, who sacrificed his perfect life, so we can have, that "promised" life. God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34; 18) I pray that you will be strengthen, with courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. Draw comfort in the resurrection hope and the precious memories you've stored in your heart. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##
