“ I send sympathy to Mable' family and loved ones at this difficult time. May you be comforted by the hope of everlasting life when we can be with our dear loved ones under much better conditions. At that time our grief will be changed into joy and nothing will ever separate us again##imported-begin##Jeanne O##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read about the loss of Mable and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time, please know you can rely on God for comfort (Psalms 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4).

Respectfully,

“ I was looking through the Obituaries and saw that your family just loss a loved one. I would like to express my sympathy and condolence, by sharing this information with you that God's has promised in the Book of John 5:28,29: "The hour is coming which all those in memorial tombs [ the grave ] will hear his [ Jesus ] voice and come out." The Bible not only reveals why we die but also explains the condition of the dead and offers hope for our deceased loved one as well as for ourselves.##imported-begin##Deborah
