“ *April and family,
My condolences on the loss of your mother. My heart and prayers go out to you during this difficult time. There are no words I could say that would lessen the grief you feel, but know that in Christ we have a Comforter, who knows your pain, who loves you, and has his arms extended to hold you and comfort you. The Bible says in Phil. 4, to think of those things that are lovely, right, praiseworthy," think on the good things, and the peace of God will be with you.*

*Love you much,

“ *April and family ... We are very sorry to hear of your loss. We have lifted you all up in prayer for the last few months and will continue to do that through this difficult time in your lives. As difficult as it is, know that she's in a better place now ... her suffering is over and your grieving is just beginning. Keep her close in your hearts and her memory will live on forever. If there is anything we can do, please don't hesitate to let us know. We are very sorry we couldn't make it yesterday, but know that you were heavy on hearts and minds. Love you ... “ April and family,

Please know that thoughts, prayers and love are with you at this difficult time. I know how much your mother/grandmother meant to all of you. She was a beautiful woman and those wonderful memories that you have will keep her alive in your hearts. I'm sorry that I cannot attend but you know I am by your side.

Love,
