“ To the family of Magaret Bennett. My family lived next door to you all when we were little kids. Johnnie and I would sit and sing all day and night along with the Gibsons. We were so close. Fond memories I have of your mom, she was so giving and so kind and sweet. Never looking to receive always willing to share. There were times when we didn't have food to eat and she made sure we were full by nights end. When my sister Erica saw this posted in the newspaper, I was devastated. I haven't seen Kim and Johnnie in years and how sad to be reaquainted in such a way. But I am convinced that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord and how you live on earth determines where you spend eternity. Well goodnight Mama Marge, I'll see you in the morning to sit at the right hand of GOD!!! Amen and be blessed.##imported-begin##URSULA ACE (BENNETT-MAIDEN NAME)##imported-end##

“ To the family,
I pray that God continues to strengthen you all and know that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord God. MaBennett is now resting in the loving arms of her Heavenly Father, and I know she's smiling upon each and every one of you. We'll all miss her, but we'll see her again. She truly lived to live again in the eternal glory of God our Father. As MaBennett would say, Love one another in the Matchless Name of Jesus!
God bless and keep you all,

“ Marge was my secretary at BCBSM a few years ago. She was a great person to know. She was kind, had high values and believed in God, family and work. She was a giver and will always be remembered. My children, who are now grown, would draw her pictures when they were younger and she would hang them up. Sorry for this loss.##imported-begin##Brenda Storie##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this time of sorrow. I will always remember Margie for her warm and kind heart. She was always very positive and would point out the bright side of every difficult situation. I was truly blessed to have her as a friend. She was kind and inspiring, and her sense of humor was uplifting. She touched the lives of so many people, and I will truly miss her.

With Sympathy,
