“ Fay,

I'm so sorry for your loss. It came suddenly. I know how special your Mother was to you and how much you've been doing for her over the past few months. I'm comforted by the fact that you were able to really spend some quality time with her pouring over old photographs. I hope in this difficult time you, your husband, and 'the boys' will find the peace they need, and remember the fond times they spent with their Grandmother/Mother in law.

*God Bless,

“ Dear Fay,
My deepest sympathy in the passing of your mother. She has been a part of your life for the longest time, and it is never easy when you lose a dear and loving mother like yours. But she is always in your heart, for sure, and your heart will always remember her fondly, but it will also ache for her. My mom, when she was very close to passing away, told me not to cry for her when she's gone. So I try to remember the very best of times we shared. That keeps me going. Mothers are very special, that's why we only get one (or two, or very, very few) in our lives.
Sincerely,
Mary Pecuch##imported-begin##Mary Pecuch##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry about the loss of Mama Donoho. You are in my prayers - although I cannot be with you today. Please try to remember the wonderful times with your mom. You were blessed to have her for as long as you did - but she will be truly missed by all who knew her. The Bible holds out the hope of a resurrection. It's found at John 5:28 and 29. May the Bible comfort you as well as your friends who love you.
