“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences to you on the death of your loved one, Marie. No matter how old our loved ones live to be or how long they are with us, it is never long enough. Death is never easy for us to accept. It's difficult and hard to rationalize because we were not created to die, but to live (Psalm 133:3). That is still God's purpose and He promises mankind that death will soon be destroyed (1 Corinthians 15:26) Our loved ones who have died will lovingly be returned to us by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29) All tears, mourning, outcry and pain will be done away with (Revelation 21:4) Death will be gone...forever! (Isaiah 25:8) May this Bible hope bring you comfort of heart and mind in the days ahead and also help to make your present pain easier to bear knowing that it comes from the True God (Psalm:18) that cannot lie (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are extended to you at this time of loss. Please take comfort in the love and support from friends and family. Never miss an opportunity to tell your loved ones what they truly mean to you. May you find peace and comfort knowing Mrs. Gray is not suffering. I hope the happier memories of her life help you endure the days ahead. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14, John 5:28 & 29, 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Death leave a heartache no one can heal, loves leaves a memory no one can steal. When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure. Take solace in these words, and remember that we will keep you in our prayers.##imported-begin##Hnede Kobbah Zondo##imported-end##
