“ Rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

God’s Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The Christian apostle Paul stated: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) Thinking about the Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one.^ That is what Lauren, a woman whose teenage brother died in an accident, found to be true. “No matter how bad I felt,” she says, “I would pick up the Bible and read, even if it was just one verse. I picked verses that were particularly encouraging, and I read them over and over again. I took comfort, for example, from Jesus’ words to Martha after Lazarus’ death. He said to her: ‘Your brother will rise.’”—John 11:23.##imported-begin##Joslyn##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Keye and Family,
My sincere sympathy for the loss of your Mother. I regret that I am out of town and not able to attend the service. I did not know your mother however, she must have been a remarkable woman with the special person you are. She had to be proud of her son. Our thoughts are with you and your family. God Bless!###imported-begin###Stella Aldo###imported-end##

“ Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our loved ones. My heart and deepest condolence goes out to the Devold Family. Jesus says, "Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth-they that have done good to a resurrection of life."-John 5:28,29. May you find comfort through the Word of God.###imported-begin###Mrs. C###imported-end##

“ I send condolences to the Devold family at this sad time. I pray that God's word the bible will bring you comfort and hope of a better day when "death will be no more, and tears, pain and sorrow will be no more" (Revelation 21:3,4) Soon, we will see our loved ones again and our grief will be changed into joy at the happy reunion of our dear ones##imported-begin##J.O##imported-end##

“ To the family, I am so sorry for your loss. May you find strength in knowing that God word the Bible will give you the needed comfort and strength. Isaiah 25:8 states that God will swallow up death forever and will certainly wipe the tears from faces.##imported-begin##Sierra##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Devold family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
