“ To the family, I am so sorry for your loss. May you find the comfort, strength, and hope from the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 states that God will swallow up death forever and death will be no more. By taking in accurate knowledge of God through his word the Bible can give you comfort in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra##imported-end##

“ My heart and deepest condolence goes out to the Coleman family. Jesus says, "Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth-they that have done good to a resurrection of life."-John 5:28,29. May you find comfort through the Word of God.##imported-begin##Mrs. C##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Coleman family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.###imported-begin##Ariel###imported-end##

I know that it will be difficult for you and you will never get passed seeing and talking to your mother but she is always there at the same exact turns...in your heart and in all of your endearing thoughts. Holding them dear will keep her hear. Be strong in your faith and call in...call out...and most of all...CALL UP. God is alwayssss listening.
