“ Dear Family: I know it is very difficult to see or feel beyond the pain that is in your hearts today. But, rest assured our Loving God has promised to 'wipe out' tears of sorrow, mourning, outcry and pain. He has promised that (soon) DEATH will be no more (Revelation 21:4). Our loved ones who have died, he will restore to us by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29). May you find comfort in God's word and keep his promises close to your heart for they will, without fail, come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.,###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Wilburn family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.###imported-begin###Ariel###imported-end##

“ Marty, words can never express how I am feeling right now. As much as I know you are in a much better place, your years of sickness and pain are now behind you, I miss you already. We spent so many days together eating out, grocery shopping, talking and just doing things to spend the time together, words can never express the pain that is left in my heart. I thank God for the years he gave us together from childhood til now. I will keep you alive in my heart and in my spirit. Now dear sister, rest peacefully in the arms of our Lord and Savior. I love you now and forever more. Your sister, Justine##imported-begin##Justine Giles Lane##imported-end##
