“ The family has my sympathy and prayers for your continued well being. Doris as you know I met your mother first but did not know you until years later. She was my first hairdresser when I moved to Michigan in 1973. She was such a kind and loving person, each time I saw her it was a special encounter.

My children always were with me and she always commented on how well they would sit and wait.

I know you will miss her but know that she now rests in God's loving arms.

“ To the family of Martha Lee Hayden,
I am so sorry for your loss. Would you like to see your dead loved one again? Thinking about reuniting with one who has passed may seem farfetched. However, the bible gives hope to those who have lost loved ones in death. At Revelation 21:4 it says “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” I hope this could provide a small measure of comfort to you. If you have any more questions, feel free to ask any one of Jehovah’s Witness. I will keep you in my prayers.##imported-begin##Brenda Jones##imported-end##

“ It can be difficult to describe the feelings we experience, when we lose someone we love so much. Revelation 21:3-5, Our Grand Creator Jehovah promises to do away with pain, death and sorrow forever. Matthew 28:18-20; all authority has been given to Jesus who provides comfort to the bereaved. John 5:28 & 29, “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out”. Luke 23:43 Jesus also said, “You will be with me in paradise”. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Hayden family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
