“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Doyle family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ My Deepest sympathies to the Doyle Family. Tonya, Tony & Wayne, I enjoyed our trips to Boblo Island with both of our moms. I remember your mother as being courteous and pleasant. And at times made me feel as I was the fourth wheel in your sibling group (as I was an only child then). May God comfort you in this time of loss.###imported-begin###Major Samson###imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus1:2)###imported-begin###Dorothy Carroll###imported-end##

“ To the Family and Friends of Mrs. Martha Doyle. Life is fragile. Like a snowflake it leaves. Yet, Martha's rich, vibrant life is a tribute to her wonderful character. The sting of death not only pains but numbs survivors. What a blessing it will be when we can rightly ask: “Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?” (1 Corinthians 15:55). I am deeply saddened by your loss. No words can really help to ease the loss you bear. He will “comfort all who mourn”. (Matthew 5:4) She leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by knowing her. “Serenity is not freedom from the storm, but peace amid the storm.”###imported-begin##Oscar and Bobbie Smith###imported-end##

“ Mrs. Martha was certainly privileged with the gift of longevity (Psalm 90:10). Even so, I know it breaks your hearts because death has separated you from your loved one. That is how our Loving God feels too! That's why at Isaiah 25:8 he promises to wipe out the tears from our eyes as he swallows up death forever and restore our loved ones to us (John 5:28,29). May your hearts find comfort and reassurance in God's promises soon to come true (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin##joyce jones###imported-end##
