“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ When I heard the news about Martha I was heart broken.I met her in 1984 when I first moved on Faust. We instantly developed a lasting friendship and even if we went month's without hearing from each other, we would pick-up where we left off when we spoke again. She even inspired me to bake, something that she was truly gifted in, as all who knew her will testify. Martha was like a second mother to me and a grandmother to my children. As a matter of fact, she was a grandma to all the children in the neighborhood. They all felt comfortable around her and would come and sit on the porch with her and talk about whatever was on their mind. I often shared the hope from the Bible of Jehovah God's promise of a resurrection with her because we both had lost son's to death. Acts 24:15 says, "I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." I look forward to the time when I will see her again on the paradise earth that Jehovah God has promised, and made possible for us all because of his giving his son, Jesus Christ, so that all have the prospect of everlasting life. John 5:28,29, Psalms 37:29. I send my deepest sympathy to you all, with all my love.##imported-begin##Denise Spencer##imported-end##

“ Dear Family,

I was so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. I found this scripture to be of comfort to many where God's Word promises us that by means of God's Kingdom which is a real government at Revelation 21:3,4 "God will wipe out every tear from there eyes and pain sorrow and death will be No more, the former things will have passed away." Please look this scripture up in your copy of the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Washington##imported-end##

“ Dear Billingsley family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Martha. I am writing to share with you the bibles wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The scriptures tell us at (1 Corinthians 15:26) that our enemy death will soon be destroyed by God. This hope is held out to all mankind, including Ms. Martha. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ My Aunt/Second Mom (Mrs. Martha Marks Jones Billingsley) is a giant in my life. As a child I never went hungry, never without clothes, or never without someone to cry too. My Aunt took care of my sibling and me. She took care of my children and their children. During my life I could always call her and she was available.

To her descendants I send my prayers and love. Thank you for sharing her. Let God's Word strengthen you and lean on him for your understanding.

*Proverbs 3: 5-6 Trust in the LORD with all your heart
And do not lean on your own understanding.*

In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He will make your paths straight. (NASB)##imported-begin##Brenda Jenkins##imported-end##
