“ To my dear friend candy moore and the collier family. Momma Collier work was done here and nows she has began anew life in her real home (Heaven). Momma Collier is no longer in your past but she awaits in your future. If you made Jesus your Lord and Savior, and live according to God's will, plan, and purpose for your life, You will one day be reunited with her and all other loved one, and friends that's gone on to be with Lord. You will never be seperated again. May God bless you give you grace in such a time as this God never make mistakes its all about will being done in all our lives.##imported-begin##Sandra Binns##imported-end##

“ Aunt Mary,
I will always remember you as being so sweet and smart! I use to love coming around on the holidays to you and Uncle Roger's house listening to you and the other "grown folks" talk about life's lessons and various stories. You, Grandma, and Aunt Ula were always outspoken but everything that you all said made sense and was true. I have carried that with me through out my life and career as far as making sure my voice is heard and believe it or not I got that teaching from the experiences that I encountered at your home. It's also because of you that I love mystery and thriller novels. You use to always share with me the latest book you were reading and tell me how exciting it was. I thank God that I was able to see you smiling and in good spirits during my last visit to Detroit. Although I mourn your loss here on earth and know that I will see you again very soon because those that believe in Jesus Christ will have everlasting life. I love you and can't wait to see you again!

“ Roger and family

Mary was one of my best friends all through childhood. Her demise is truly a shock. My prayers are with you guys. I know what you are going through, I lost David almost 3 years ago. She will always be with you guys in spirit. With DEEPEST SYMPATHY!! I'm still trying to deal with the loss of my dear friend. Jean##imported-begin##Alma (Jean) Sherfield Smith##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one, Mrs. Mary. Nothing can be more devastating to us than the death of someone we love especially a precious mother, and it is a challenge, indeed, to move on without them in our lives. But our Loving Creator has given us reason for hope...the sure hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. At John 5:28,29 he teaches us that 'the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out'. At Revelation 21:4 our God promises that 'he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more'. Isaiah states that our Loving God will 'swallow up' DEATH forever! (Isaiah 25:8) I realize that at this moment, words may offer little comfort. But, I hope in the days ahead you will read these Scriptures and think about the wonderful hope that God offers...to see our loved ones again. May this help to ease your pain and comfort your heart knowing that Our Loving God will do all that He has promised for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Even though our times together were short, they were so very memorable. I enjoyed our moments together laying across your bed laughing and talking while watching your favorite episodes of Law and Order. I know you are now at peace and resting comfortably in God's heavenly arms. I can see you now just smiling....I look forward to God's promise that if we believe; we will see our loved ones again.
