“ Please accept my letter, it is just a few words to express my sympathy to you over the loss of your love one. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement. Psalms 55:22.##imported-begin##Ruth##imported-end##

“ Please accept this letter as my expression of sympathy over the lost of your dear loved one. I am writing to share with you the marvelous hope that the Bible hold our for a furure resurrection. We suffer when a loved one dies because "death is a loss to a void beyond all understanding", so said a son who lost his father then shortly thereafter his mother died. His pain and sense of deep loss made him feel that he was "drowning emotionally". Perhaps you have similar feelings with your loss. Are you wondering if your loved one is still conscious somewhere, and whether you will ever see them again?

The bible gives a satisfying answer to these questions. When Jehovah's Wittnesses call at your home ask for more information, from the Bible about the hope for the dead. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.

Sincerely,
Deborah Lawrence##imported-begin##deborah

“ To the Family of Mrs. Mary Adams. In these "critical times hard to deal with," we may at times feel overwhelmed by the pressures of life. (2Timothy 3:1) But we do not have to face such challenges alone. Our Heavenly Father is willing to reach out and grasp our hand. Like trusting children, we can hold on to his mighty hand, confident that he will lead us in the right direction and help us in our time of need. __Psalm 63:7,8. You have my deepest sympathy##imported-begin##Bobbie Smith##imported-end##

“ Please accept this post as an expression of my sympathy for your loved one, Mary Ellen. I am writing to share with you the marvelous hope that the bible holds out for a future resurrection. The bible's clear teaching removes confusion about what happens to us at death. The scriptures plainly show that death is our "enemy" that will be destroyed by God (please read 1Corinthians 15:26). May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement. Sincerely

“ I send thoughts of sympathy and comfort at this time of loss. Our heavenly father Jehovah has "set a day" to make all things right again and reunite us with our dear loved ones lost in death. (Acts 17:31) At that time our grief will be changed into joy at the happy reunion of all our loved ones. May we visualize that day and imagine how wonderful it will be to see our dear ones again, never to suffer or be separated by death. This is the purpose of our creator and heavenly father. May you feel the "peace of God that excels all thought" (Philippians 4:6) until you see your loved one again.###imported-begin##Jeanne###imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are extended to you at this time of loss. (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will really help you. I will really keep fast hold of you with my right hand of righteousness.’ For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, ‘Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’ These are comforting words from our Grand Creator Jehovah God. Trust in HIM with all your heart - Jesus said I am the resurrection and life, he that exercise faith in me will come to life. . . John 11:25.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read about the loss of Mary and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time please know you can rely on God for comfort (Psalms 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##T.

“ Dear Family: What a privilege you had to have had Mrs. Mary with you for such a long time. She was truly one of 'special mightiness'. (Psalm 90:10) Yet, no matter how long our loved ones live or how long they are with us, it still hurts us when death separates us from them. May you find comfort in knowing that Ms. Edna is precious in God's eyes and will not be forgotten by him (Psalm 116:15)Our Loving God has promised us that soon death will be done away with (Isaiah 25:8) and we will have the joy of seeing our dead loved ones again (John 5:28,29). While we await the fulfillment of his word, may you relish in your beautiful memories of her and may you find comfort of mind and heart knowing that all things will take place as promised by God. (2 Cor. 1:3,4; Titus 1:2). Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us. (1 Cor. 2:9) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Adams family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ To my extended family, I want you to know that you are all in my heart and prayers. I am going to miss my dear friend, and "other mother", "Miss Mary"! I loved her so very much. I miss talking to her everyday, taking her to the doctor, shopping, and to run whatever errands she had. She was my best friend since I was a mere child around the age of 7 or 8. I am 52 now and it has truly been a pleasure to have had her in my life as long as I did. My, and all of our aim, should be to reach the age of 90 and still have a sound mind, love God, and be surrounded by love! I am here for you if you need me. You are all in my heart and prayers. Just remember to always rely on our heavenly Father, Jehovah (Psalms 83:18), and throw your burdens on Him (Psalms 55:22), He will sustain you. Call me anytime, day or night. We will all get through this together through prayer! I LOVE YOU!##imported-begin##Tyra S. Horton##imported-end##
