“ Firstly, we give condolences to everyone bereaving Mrs. Mary Lee Little. Secondly, We were Mr. and Mrs. Little's next door neighbors. They were the epitome of good neighbors. Mrs. Little was especially instrumental in helping us to get through one of the toughest times of our lives. Mr. and Mrs. little were a true blessing and we will never forget it. Prayerfully, during this time of reflection you will embrace the good times that you shared with her as well as the good that she did while here. Finally, to Mr. Lionel Little and Bill, please be encouraged to know that we are praying for you. Love and peace Winston and Sondra Lewis.##imported-begin##Mr. & Mrs. Mary Lee Little##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: The Bible teaches us at James 4:14 that our lives are but 'a mist appearing for a little while and then disappearing.' What a privilege you had to have had Mrs. Mary with you for so long! (Psalm 90:10). Still, I know it breaks your heart to lose her because life, in reality, was just not meant to be this way. God created man to live not die! That's why it's so hard for us to accept death! It's an unnatural experience for us to endure. The Bible, in fact, tells us that 'death' is our enemy (1 Cor. 15:26). But, now, our Loving Creator has promised us in his word to undue the effects of death. He promises to 'swallow up death forever' (Isaiah 25:8) and to restore our loved ones to us who have died by means of a resurrection. His Son, Jesus says: ..."the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out..." (John 5:28, 29) Mankind will then be able to live out his days to the fullest as Jehovah God originally intended... "even life forever more" (Psalm 133:3) free of sickness (Isaiah 33:24) and yes, free of death! (Revelation 21:4). May God's Word bring your hearts comfort today and in the days ahead. My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
