“ Rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

God’s Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The Christian apostle Paul stated: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) Thinking about the Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one.^ That is what Lauren, a woman whose teenage brother died in an accident, found to be true. “No matter how bad I felt,” she says, “I would pick up the Bible and read, even if it was just one verse. I picked verses that were particularly encouraging, and I read them over and over again. I took comfort, for example, from Jesus’ words to Martha after Lazarus’ death. He said to her: ‘Your brother will rise.’”—John 11:23.##imported-begin##Joslyn##imported-end##

“ To the Turner Family, I am so sorry for your loss. May you find the needed comfort and strength through God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 states that God will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces and death will be no more. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. For more information on the scriptural hope, please visit: [www.watc

“ Sheila
You and your family are in my prayers. Your Mom and my Mom sang together in the Bishop Choir at GGT. Now they are together in Heaven.

Love You

“ *The loss of a love one is so hard to face,
you just want to hide,
go some where and escape!
But death is something,
we all must go through,
I know it's hard,
when it's someone you love. Just know now, auntie is in a better place,
no more hurt or pain shall she face.
It seems unfair and yes this is true,
but she is in Heaven now
watching over me and you!
God has called her home to rest!!
And she's being well taken care of Because God knows best!##imported-begin##Lori

“ Grandma,

*This all seems surreal. You left me; you left us way too soon.
However, I know that your body was only a temporary shelter and your spirit is eternal. The glory o your life, the seeds of your faith, the memory of your smile, the smell of your home cooked meals and your love will never be forgotten. Every time I say a prayer, attempt to cook or bowl, I know you will be there. Every holiday to come, I know that your presence will surround us. Every step of the way, in this journey called life, I will remember your teachings and put GOD first. Your transition sent your spirit to where it belongs, so that now you can rest in peace.*

Love you,

“ Dear Family: May the God of all comfort be with you during your hour of bereavement. Losing a loved one in death is never easy. (John 11:33-36) However, as you prepare to celebrate the life of your loved one, Maude, the lives she touched and the legacy she leaves behind, may you find comfort from the Bible at Isaiah 25:8 where God promises to swallow up death forever, John 5:28,29 where he promises a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died and Revelation 21:4,5 where our Loving God assures us that mourning, outcry, tears and yes, even death will soon be things of the past. (Titus 1:2) Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us! (1 Cor. 2:9). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Turner family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
