“ I just can't say enough about my "Auntie Mary Kay". The blog cannot hold everything I have to say. I thank G_D for her life and for everyone she has affected. I will forever know that I was her "favorite niece". She was the only person who faithfully sang happy birthday to me over the phone on September 7th (no matter HOW BAD it sounded :)). The world has lost an awesome person but I am proud to have her blood running through my veins. Life will go on...but not the same with out you Auntie..

Love,

“ My Dearest Sister, I miss you so much! The telephone is so quiet now and I'm not so busy now. You are one of the bright lights in my life and I know you are shining brighter with the Lord. I often see your smile. Never forget our love for each other. Say hi to Mom for me and when it's time,... "I'll see you in the morning"!###imported-begin##Alverta Culver###imported-end##

“ To the Knox family:

My family's prayers are with you during this somber time. It was an honor to have known Mrs. Knox and may she rest in peace. I have been friends with Earl III since second grade (30 years), including some of my fondest childhood memories. He has always been a wonderful, fun-loving person, which is a tribute to Maureen and Earl for the way he was raised.

Love,

“ Unfortunately, after moving from Detroit to New Jersey 13 years ago I haven't been in touch with my Christ Church of the hour family. So Eric and Earl Hello, so to hear the loss of your mother and I pray God will continue to strengthen your hearts. I'm sure she is resting with "Granny" peacefully. As I think back I remember her shouting and praising the lord. It's good to be remembered praising God. God be with you all.##imported-begin##Timothy C. Knight##imported-end##

“ We cherish the beautiful and loving memory of Maureen. She was a dear, dear cousin who radiated joy, adventure, and love. Our family is forever made smaller due to her going home to her eternal rest, but we are deeply enriched and emboldened by her indomitable spirit. Our hearts are sad for we miss Maureen so much. To Earl Sr., Earl Jr., Eric, Verta, Jack, and all the family, our hearts and prayers are with you in spirit. Be ye encouraged for the Comforter will bring you peace.
