“ Dear

I did not know your loved one personally, but that did not stop me from wanting to offer my sympathy, and let you know you are not alone. We all have been touched by death at one time or another and need comfort during this time.

The Bible offer such comfort at Isaiah 25: 8 Please read it. . I hope it will bring some comfort to you and your family in the up coming months . I hope you will accept my heart-felt condolence.##imported-begin##Deborah Richardson##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Scott family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I extend my sincere condolences to you on the death of your precious loved one, Maxcine. The Bible teaches us that death is mankind's worst enemy because it separates us from those we love so much. But, our Loving God also tells us in his Word, the Bible, that he will (soon) destroy death...forever! (1 Corinthians 15:26) And, he promises to resurrect those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Mankind will then be able to live out his life, here on earth, as he originally intended: "The righteous shall inherit the land (earth),and dwell therein forever", (Psalm 37:29; Matthew 5:5) free of sickness, (Isaiah 33:24) and yes, free of death! (Revelation 21:4) May knowing what God will do shortly, bring comfort to your hearts.(Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end##
