“ Dear Kirby family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Mazie. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The bible gives us a satisfying answer to what happens to us at the time of our death. It tells us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that death is the last enemy that will be destroyed by God. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ May you be comforted during this difficult time. Treasure the happy memories you've stored in your heart. Death is unnatural, because this was not in Our Grand Creator Jehovah God's purpose. Mrs. Kirby can rest now. Revelations 21:3-5 encourages us: "God will wipe out every tear from your eyes, and death will be not more". That includes each and every one of your tears. Even Jesus says at Luke 23:43, "You will be with me in paradise". That will be a reality.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: No matter how old our loved ones live to be, we are never ready to say 'goodbye' to them. They have brought such richness to our lives. We have learned so much from them and have made many beautiful memories with them. It seems that they should go on living forever. It seems so unfair that they should go and leave us behind, brokenhearted. It all seems unfair because it is unfair! Death remains mankind's worst enemy because it separates us from those we love. However, our Loving God tells us in his Word, the Bible, that he will (soon) correct this injustice to mankind by destroying death forever! (1 Corinthians 15:26) He also promises to resurrect our loved ones who have died, including your loved one, Mrs. Maize. (John 5:28,29) Mankind will then be able to live out his life, here on earth, as God originally intended (Psalm 37:29; Matthew 5:5), free of sickness (Isaiah 33:24) and yes, free of death! (Revelation 21:4). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
