“ When a sister leaves the fold it is most difficult to accept. When that sister is one anchored in Christ the sting is still there but the hurt is eased in knowing that she is resting in Jesus' arms. I did not get to know her until much later in life. When she visited here in Mississippi I had the great honor and previledge of meeting her face to face which was a joy to my heart. She was warmer in person than I thought anyone could ever be. I will forever love her and to her children and grandchildren find comfort in knowing that our Father in heaven will continue to smile on you because she has left prayers in the bank of love on your behalf. I love you and will continue to pray for your healing strength.

Love forever,

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Parker family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: It breaks our hearts when death separates us from our loved ones, no matter how young or how old they may happen to be. However, we are reminded in the Bible that there is One who sees our distress and pain and has promised that soon death will be done away with...swallowed up forever! (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again. (John 5:28,29) I hope in the days ahead as you reflect on the life of your loved one, Mentilda, and the precious memories she left you, that you will also find much comfort and reassurance in Jehovah God's promises to us for the near future for they will not fail to come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May Ms.Parker be granted eternal life with the Lord. She is in my thoughts and prayers, as is her family.
