“ Dear Family, While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ Dear Anthony family, please accept my condolence over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Mildred. I am writing to share with you the bible's hope of a future resurrection. The bible tells us at (1 Corinthians 15:26) that soon our last enemy death will be brought to nothing by God. This hope is held out to all mankind, including Ms. Mildred. May the God of all tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of mourning.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May the comfort of God help you during this difficult time. What a wonderful God we have - he is the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of every mercy, and the one who comforts and strengthens us in our hardships and trials. And why does he do this? So that when others are troubled, needing our sympathy and encouragement, we can pass on to them this same help and comfort God has given us. The Bible tells us that there is hope for our dead loved ones. It makes this promise: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Psalms 37:29.##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ To the family: I would like to express my sincere condolences, for the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort during your time of mourning, in persistent prayers as, "the peace of God that excels all thought will guard your heart and all your mental powers." (Philippians 4:7) I certainly hope that in knowing that God Care will make a difference at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
