“ Dear Graham family, please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Mildred. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he said at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that I have of seeing my dear mother again, and it is also a hope that is held out to Ms. Mildred. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Our Heavenly Father, Jehovah knows how deep our grief is. We long for the touch of a hand, the sound of a voice that has been silenced. He is merciful and kind. He will comfort our grieving hearts and wipe the tears from our eyes. He understands us, because he created us. (Revelation 7:16-17) He is the one who tells us: (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) “For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, ‘Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Ms. Mildred was certainly a lady of 'special mightiness' (Psalm 90:10) However, no matter how old our loved ones live to be, we are never ready to say 'goodbye' to them. They have brought such richness to our lives. We have learned so much from them and have made many beautiful memories with them. It seems that they should go on living forever. It seems so unfair that they should go and leave us behind, brokenhearted. In the days ahead, as you reflect on the life of your precious one, Mrs. Mildred, please be reminded that our Loving God is also interested in and cares for you and her (1 Peter 5:7). He promises that soon death will be a thing of the past (Revelation 21:4,5) and we will have the joy of seeing our precious loved ones again.(John 5:28,29). May your hearts find comfort in this truth in the days ahead.(Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin##joyce jones###imported-end##
