“ To the Family: Please accept my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mrs. Mildred. Death at any age is an enemy because it robs families of their loved ones and leaves them with unspeakable pain and sorrow. Rest assured that our Loving Creator cares for us very much and has therefore promised that he will destroy death forever! (1Cor. 15:26). In the meantime, may you take comfort in this Scriptural hope and also in his promise that 'he will wipe away all tears from our eyes and death will be no more (Revelation 21:4). Our loved ones will not be forsaken in death for he states that 'all those in memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out'(John 5:28,29). May His words warm your hearts and make a little easier the grief you bear knowing God cannot lie and that all He has promised will come true (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ *Auntie Mildred was a wonderful woman I think what I loved about her most was her honesty to tell you exactly what she thought about any situation. I'll miss her but I know I'll have an eternity to spend with her when we met again in heaven. Dwight and Kim hang tough she would not expect anything less.
