“ I was blessed enough to have Minnie as my next door neighbor in Lincoln Towers for several years. She always greeted me with such kindness each and every time we encountered each other. I was blessed to visit with her, because even if it was a brief moment, I could easily feel her very sweet heart. The memories of her I will always carry with me are of a strongly spiritual, warm and caring woman. I was blessed by her graciously accepting the physical challenges she faced, which many people would succumb to bitterly. I admired "our Miss Minnie." I regret not being able to attend Services for her, due to my own illness. May GOD Bless Richly everyone who loved and cared for Mrs. Minnie Everett. I pray your hearts feel God's rich comfort at this time.##imported-begin##Kathleen##imported-end##

“ I was fortunate enough to know Minnie my entire life. She was a beautiful person both inside and outside. Minnie was a caring, loving, happy, woman and the world was a better place because of her. I love her and will miss her always. She is in a better place now without pain and with the Lord. My sympathies go out to her family. Cherie Henry##imported-begin##Cherie Henry##imported-end##

“ Thinking of Minnie and her family at this time... Minnie was one of my favorite people, ever. To me she was loving and full of life and always had something to say and created lots of memories for me and my family. I liked the way she used to say this when it became difficult to get around these last few years: "I know it's a blessing to get old, but it sure can be inconvenient." I also liked the stories she used to tell about growing up in Alabama and how she had a horse named Buddie that she'd ride bareback. We will miss her dearly.##imported-begin##Darla##imported-end##
