“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from God found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##s##imported-end##

“ My favorite aunt has gone. I will miss you. I will miss most of all our talks, oh how you helped me get through some tough time with your words of wisdom and prayer. I will forever be grateful that GOD saw fit to let you be my aunt. You show me so much love all these years and for that I thank you. My heart aches because I know I will never see your smile or hear your laugh or get advice when I need it, but I will forever remember the good times I had and shared with you. For you I and so happy that you are in a better place where there in no more pain and heart ache. I will miss you so very much.

Forever My Auntie Miriam

“ Nothing words can say, nothing a friend could do, could make up for the passing of one so dear to you. But it may bring some measure of comfort to know that sympathetic thoughts are with you in your grief. May the comfort of Jehovah and his son Jesus, bring peace to your hearts now and through the days ahead. Miriam can truly rest. When she wakes up, she will see a beautiful garden/park (paradise) she wants her family there too. She can begin to grow to perfection; never to worry about ever being sick again. May your tears of sadness turn to smiles as you remember the happier times shared with Miriam. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“*God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped his arms around you,
and whispered, "come to me."*

*You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best*

*And when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again."*

*Mom, I miss you so much. It hurts that I can't talk to you everyday any more. I didn't just lose my Mom, I lost my friend,too. But you rest now. I love you.##imported-begin##Stephanie##imported-
