“ I'm writing you to share some encouragement with you. Words can't express the pain and heartache that you are feeling now. It was really hard for me when granddad past, there is one scripture I will never forget (revelations 21:4) It says that soon there will be no more death tears pain. I hope that you also find this scripture as encouraging I did. The way you felt when you lost Ms. Miriam franklin and the way I felt when I lost my granddad will soon never exist again we will be happy forever, Sincerely, Kelynn##imported-begin##Kelynn Salley##imported-end##

“ *Dear Franklin family,
Please accept my condolence over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Miriam. I'm writing you to tell you about the bibles hope that is held out for our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. The bible tells us that at (John 5:28,29) that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. What a wonderful promise this is for mankind when our loved ones will experience a resurrection from the dead. May you draw comfort from this thought.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##*

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Franklin family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
