“ May memories comfort us, beyond the winter's darkness waits the gentle light of spring... Beyond the time of sadness waits the glad remembering. May memories take some of the sadness from your heart and gently replace it with the warmth of shared moments and promise of peace to come. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.##imported-begin##BookerIII & Family(correction)##imported-end##

“ Booker jr, Lynne, Tina, Paula, Annette, Michael and Mr.Kennedy.
My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. I know this is not an easy road right now and as time passes it will become easier.
Your mother was a beautiful, warm and loving person whom I thought was great when I was a child- and I continued to admire her as I reached adulthood.

“ To Annette Kennedy and the entire Kennedy family. I am so sorry to hear about the death of your Mother. Shari Antieu sent me an email at home to let me know about your loss while I am out of work on disability. You know my heart and thoughts are with you and your family and that I personally know the feeling of the loss you are going through. I am so grateful that I was able to meet your Mom that one time you rolled her into the office in a wheelchair after a follow up appointment with her Doctor after her stroke. I found her to be a beautiful and charming women and I know how blessed you were to have her as your Mom and Grandmother to your Son. I am so sorry that I cannot make it to the visitation hours at the Funeral Home or attend the Funeral Services and I feel bad about this because you were there two years ago supporting me through my loss when my Mom died however Rick and I have Doctor appointments that conflict with the hours of visitation and the funeral. God will provide you and your family love, comfort, and strength through this difficult time. Even though your Mom is no longer around she will live in your heart and memories forever and will always be with you and will be your family’s guardian angel from above. “ Lynn and family,

I am so sorry to hear that your mother has passed. May God send His Spirit to bring you comfort in these difficult days. Rejoice in the life that she led, and look to the day when you will be reunited with all of your loved ones. Even now they are with Jesus, preparing a place for each of you, where you will dwell in the house of the Lord forever, and where there will be no more suffering or sorrow, but only joy forever and ever.
