“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##Susan##imported-end##

“ To the Moore Family,

We know that the true and living God, Jesus the Christ, is in Control of Life and Death. We all will have to face an expiration date. My Prayer is that we will be ready "BEFORE" THAT TIME COMES!! I am praying for all of you.

*God Bless You and Keep You,

“ To Aunt Modenner's children and grandchildren: I am so sorry I won't be at Aunt Denna's funeral. Babies have their own schedule & my daughter is due right now. I will have so many good memories of her at reunions, visits, on our cruise, and phone conversations. She was a bright colorful flower in a bunch of weeds some days, and I mean that in the most loving way. Aunt Deanna would be bright & smiling even tho everyone around her would be in bad & grumpy moods. I love Aunt Modenner very much and will miss her positive advice. Know that I will be with you ion thoughts and prayers on Saturday.
Hugs to you all, Jane###imported-begin##Jane Hardin###imported-end##

“ Modenner,

There are no words to speak or write now as everything I say to you speaks only from deep within my heart. How could you know all the wonder that you are and how you have forever changed my life?

*There is or never will be a finer example of a great and wonderful life lived. You set a bar that will always remain, although strived for, unachievable. You are a one of a kind, and the legacy you have left in your wonderful Children will bear that out I look forward now to the time when once again our conversations will flow freely. You lit my life on fire with endless possibilities. Thank you for entering my life, forever friends, Carmi
