“ Well we are all heart broken here in the Fakhoury household. We met Mrs. Murdie years ago at our yard sale. She would come visit us and our kids every few months . One day she called me and told me her husband passed. My husband and I made our way to his funeral and i think that was the last time id seen her. Thinking she was busy, i tried calling and calling but no one ever answered. Now i know why💔💔💔💔... What a lovely human being she was. She brought a sort of peacefulness to our home eveeytime she entered it... May her memory be eternal. So sorry to the children and family we never jad a chance to meet.

“ I will leave on this website words that I just couldn't get totally out at the funeral..... I knew Mrs. Smith/Daniels for approximately 57 years. I met her and her family through my Mother, Mary Smith. When it was time for me to start getting my hair dressed, Murdie became my Hairdresser. It seemed that each decade our relationship became stronger: Hairdresser, Friend, Spiritual Mother, Mentor and finally the Virtuous Woman. I would tell her often, “When I grow up I want to be just like you”. She helped shape me into the woman that I am today. The entire 31st Chapter of Proverbs described her beautifully, but verses 10: Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies; 20: She stretcheth out her hand to the poor, yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy; and 26: She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. Wow..... To Joe, Ida and Floyd, thank you for sharing your Mother with me ..... Always know that I'm still here if you need me.##imported-begin##Carolyn Chatman##imported-end##

“ The doctors said that Mom died of a weak heart. Well, if her heart was weak, it was because she gave so much of it. But you all know that.

Mom died a classic death...as befitting her.

**She was prepared for it. She insisted on purchasing cheaper furniture in her new place because she felt she wouldn't be around long enough to enjoy it.*

**She knew her business affairs would be put in order.*

**She got to communicate with and say goodbye to many of her most important friends and relatives. She once told me that she probably knew someone on every street in Detroit.*

**And she went--relatively free of pain.*

You're reading her obit. We didn't write it--she did--without our knowledge --about 3 years ago. All we had to do was to change a few dates and add a few names.

Don't grieve for her but grieve for us for whom we've lost. She would be the first to tell you that life goes on. I know she's right. Trash pickup day for me is tomorrow. Life goes on. I still have to take the trash out tonight. Life goes on.

“ i just writing to give some encouraging word from the bible. John 5:28,29 says "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life. What a wonderful time it will be to see this future prophecy come true.##imported-begin##Kim Marshall##imported-end##

“ Ida, Floyd, & Joe-

Please accept our deepest condolences, as our hearts are very heavy in learning of the homegoing of our beloved, Murdie.

God is our comfort in time of sorrow. Jesus Himself wept over the death of a beloved friend. We know how much you love and respected your Mother as did we. And while she will be missed, we encourage you to hold strong to your faith in the Lord as we know He is our refuge and strength. (Revelation 21:4) reads "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." Take comfort in knowing you will see her again as she rests peacefully. Please know you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. May God bless you all during this time and always.##imported-begin##Lisa & Doris Medley##imported-end##

“ To my Cousins, Joe, Ida, Floyd & family:

Let not your heart be troubled. You are trusting God.

There are many homes up there where our Father lives & He has prepared one for Auntie Murdie's coming.

Be strong, Be courageous as she would want you to be. For the Lord, our God will be with you and our family.

The Lord is close to those whose hearts are breaking. For the mountains may depart & the hills disappear but His kindness shall not leave us.

Our earthly bodies, the ones we have now that can die, must be transformed into heavenly bodies where I pray we will all see each other again in heaven.

Love Always,

Your Cousin,
