“ The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. Psalm 73:26

*Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
May you feel God's comfort and grace all around you as you draw strength from the times you enjoyed together with Cordell the laughter, the successes, the joys. May the peace of the Lord be with you.*

*I am submitting this poem as a tribute to Mr. Cordell White:
Not, How Did He Die, But How Did He Live?
Not how did he die, but how did he live?
Not what did he gain, but what did he give?
These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.
Not, what was his church, nor what was his creed?
But had he befriended those really in need?
Was he ever ready, with word of good cheer,
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?
Not what did the sketch in the newspaper say,
But how many were sorry when he passed away.##imported-

“ *Baby, I was there when you were born. I have loved you so much, more like a son than a brother. Your leaving me like this is one of the most difficult things I have ever had to accept. I have expected some losses in life, but not you, not now. My only consolation is that one day there will be no more sorrow, no more sickness, no more tears. I am waiting on that day. I love You, Connie##imported-
