“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Smith family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ This world has its seasons of sadness, its parting and tearful good-byes. But someday there'll be only gladness, when The Lord wipe all tears from our eyes. There'll be an all-out celebration, when one day our time here is through, and our love ones will say with elation, Welcome home, I have been waiting for you!

May God Bless and Keep you is my prayer!

“ Aunt Sis will truly be missed here on this earth as we know it now. I have very fond memories of her. She took me in as a teenager and finished raising me when I was 17. She also baby sat for my daughter Valerie while I went to school. She was soft spoken and humble but yet strong when she meant business you knew it she would look at you in an confident way that was emphatical and tell you what was right and what she expected. Her love for flowers was so very apparent by her passion for gardening. She was such a strong woman that has left a great legacy. Aunt Sis I miss you and I will always love you!
