“ *Dad Montgomery, I will miss you sitting quietly in the services with your head down and eyes closed as you take in every word that is spoken. How the choir will miss you. It seemed like they were singing for no one else but you. You loved good music, singing and preaching. You have been a great encourager not only to me but to the church family. You have taught me how to not give up on folks, even when they seem hopeless. I know you have held on for so many family members, believing to see them delivered, if not here on earth, one day in glory. I love you, Pastor Harvey##imported-begin##Pastor Constance D.
