“ Mrs. Ora Mae Jones

“ To The Family,

When I remember Ms. Jones, I remember a woman who loved the Lord. She lived her relationship with God. Anyone who knew her, knew that God was her first priority. With her Bible out and her Christian programs on in that back room is where I last remember her.

She lived as a Christian, and it was evident. When we think of Ora, we can relate her to a Godly woman. There are not many women that can really even come close to the Proverbs 31 woman, but when I reflect on her life, she was, if not a Proverbs 31 woman, as close as anyone I've known.

I thank God for her life. God allowed her to be daughter, wife, mother, mother-in-law, sister, aunt, grandmother, great grandmother, friend, etc., and she wore them all under the title of Christian. Everyone knew that her first love was God. Because she loved Him, she loved you and prayed for you.

She lived her life as a testimony before God, so there is no sadness, except that she will be missed.

The same joy that she had, you can have. God's love is extended to you. You can choose Him today.

There is a way that seems right, but that way leads to death. (Prov. 16:25) You want to choose the one who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. The only way to the Father is through Him. Jesus. God's word says, the highway of the upright is to depart from evil. He who keeps his way preserves his soul. God wants to bless you in this life.

Sin is pleasureable, for a season!! Don't be fooled. There will come a day when it will require something of you. Your health, your peace, a sound mind.....

We will all have to stand before God and give an account to Him for what we did in this life.

Don't let this be another day like all the other ones, if you have not asked Jesus to be your savior. If you have not allowed Him to be Lord over your life, then you haven't lived the real life.

Although Ora could not live for you, she taught you, and lived it before you. My prayer is that you choose life, so that you can live, and you will see her again.

God bless you family, and thank you for sharing her with me.

Love,

Maria
