“ I send condolences to Patricia's family at this difficult time. May God's word comfort you and give you hope. The day is coming when "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, outcry nor pain be any more.." (Revelation 21:3,4) Soon, our grief will be changed into joy when we see our dear loved ones again in God's Kingdom. (Psalms 37:10,11,29)##imported-begin##Jeanne O##imported-end##

“ Please accept this note as my expression of sympathy over the lost of your dear loved one, Ms Patricia Ann. I'm writing to share with you the marvelous hope that the bible holds out for a future resurrection. The scriptures plainly show that death is our "enemy" that will be destroyed by God (read 1Corinthians 15:26). May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.

Sincerely,

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Winans family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May it ease your mind and warm your heart to know that your loved one now rests in God's memory (John 5:28,29). May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mrs. Patricia. Please remember that God sees your tears and understands your pain. He longs to heal up your 'painful spots'and heal your broken heart because he cares for you. (1 Peter 5:7, Psalm 147:3) My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin##joyce jones###imported-end##
