“ *To Pat's Family, I believe everyone who worked with Pat at NRPH will always remember her for her smile and enthusiasm. Always one to volunteer and help wherever she could. It is understandable to be sad at a time like this. We share your grief and memories. We will continue to remember her and keep you in our prayers.##imported-begin##G. “ Friends for many years, seemed we were your extened family when the kids were young. Still consider you to be my sister, time never will erase that memory, You were a great mom. And a good friend who had a great guy that adored you. I will miss your laughter, especially the last laugh we shared .. watching Lawrence iin that small paddle boat. You will never be forgotten. You've always been my inspiration. My life was blessed with you in it. My deepest condolences to your family.

“ Patrice, Raymond and Chauney I am so saddened to hear about the passing of Pat. We send our deepest sympathy. Although, she may not be present here on earth we know that to be absent on earth is the first step to one day being present with the Lord. So be assured that you can trust in God's word and it will not come back void. I have not seen Pat in many years but my memories of her and the old Eastlawn days just make you shake your head and smile. Pat was Cool. Just thinking of how close the families and the children on the block was, was really something. One big happy family. God Bless you all and we will keep you in our prayers. “ I am deeply saddened to hear about your loss, but it is my deepest prayer that you find solice in God's word and all of his promises. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14 states: Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in Him. I know that Pat has found perfect peace with the Lord and she will live forever more in his presence. While time and space have caused physical separation, should there be anything that I can do, please do not hesitate. With love and my deepest sympathy.

“ Dear Lawrence,
I sympathize with your great loss. But always remember that God needs the best and so he has chosen your wife. She was a wonderful, phenomenal woman. We have two ways of remembering people who leave us and start another journey. We either cry over their absence or smile, remembering the countless memories that she has left with us. I'm sure Pat wants you to smile forever. She's watching you now. Stay strong.

“ Dear Patrice, Raymond & Chantell

I am completely apologetic and send my deepest and most sincere regards for your loss. I know it is an extremely difficult and rough time for you at the moment, and I wish to offer my utmost support and compassion. I wish for all of you to stay strong just as your mother would have wished.

Mothers are like angels set upon this earth to guide us through thick and thin. Pat was one of those angels who stood beside all of us throughout the years never asking for anything in return. She will be sadly missed, but her gestures of caring, goodwill, and kindness will be part of your spirit now as you go forward in your lives. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

With love and sympathy,

“ Dear Asia & Family,
It was with a great sense of loss when we heard of the passing of your grandmother.

We wanted to let you know that you have our greatest sympathy, and our hearts are truly saddened. Asia as you are aware God called our grandmother home also, just a few months ago. We figured he wanted all his special angels right now.

Mrs. Williams was more than just a wonderful person; she was always so kind and considerate to us that we always enjoyed visiting her as kids.

And, we know that her passing will not only leave a void in our lives, but in the hearts of all those who knew her.

Your grandmother will always remain within our hearts, and we have included Mrs. Williams and you in our daily prayers. May God give you strength?

If there is anything that we can do to help you in anyway, please do not hesitate to call us at any time. You can phone either of us at any time, even if it is only to talk.

Our sincere thoughts and prayers are with you.
With our deepest sympathy,

Love Your Sister & Brother
