“ I was so sorry to read about the loss of Peggy, and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time please know you can rely on God for comfort (Psalms 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4). For more info on the scriptural hope, please visit www.watchtower.org.

Respectfully,

“ My dear darling Peggy, How I will miss your smile and our special talks on the way home. You were my sister and I am having a hard time trying to understand why you were taken so, soon but I know you are in a better place free from pain and hurt. But just know that I love you so much.##imported-begin##Debra Ball##imported-end##

“ To the Williams Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear mother, Peggy. Although I didn't know her personally, I can still certainly relate to the loss of a mother for I loss my mother some years ago. Death, at any age, at any time, is a true enemy of mankind because it separates us from those who are so special to us and leaves us devastated! However, our Loving Heavenly Father has already made provision to wipe out death forever (1 Corinthians 15:26). Anything causing us mourning, pain, tears and sorrow will be gone forever! (Revelation 21:4). I know words may offer little comfort at this time, but may God's promise of a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died, including your mother, comfort your hearts (John 5:28,29). I hope, too, that future days will help you to see that God promises a beautiful tomorrow. (Titus 1:2) My deepest heartfelt sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
