“ Dinalla, I haven't known you and your family long but I have grown quite attached to you. It was almost 5 years ago when I sat where you are now and asked the same question "Mom why did you leave me? Didn't you know I still needed you?" She answered back "Daughter I have prepared you for this day" I still call out to my mother sometimes at night and I still here her voice and feel her arms around me. Trust that you will never forget anything about her it's not possible, the love you have will never let that happen. Just remember "WEEPING ENDURES FOR A NIGHT BUT JOY COMES IN THE MORNING." I am a living witness just when you think that the rain and clouds won't go away God comes in a makes it all shine again. I am praying for your strength because you are going to need it for your family, your children and yourself. I love you like a sister

“ Dear Dinalla, losing a parent never becomes easy. Death always leaves an emptiness and brings solemn reflection on the meaning of life and family. Only God can comfort your heart in times like these. I just want you and your family to know that your in my prayers hourly. Love Vennette###imported-begin###Vennette Kimble###imported-end##

“ May God be with you and your family Dinalla. I was so sorry to hear about your mother, you have and always be in my prayers. God is awesome and he makes no mistakes i have found that to be true, but when you lose a loved one especially a parent it seems like there is no tomorrow but God always brings light where there is darkness. Always remember that and know you are truly on my mind and in my heart. God is good Love Nekia.###imported-begin###Nekia Howard###imported-end##
