“ I truly Thank God for letting you be my mother and best friend. I couldn't have had a better mother.You showed each of your children the special love that we needed.The Lord had given you so much love that when you was on your way to be with him you had to leave some of it to each one of children. I will never forget what you have unstill in me.The teaching and praying and to always be strong in the Lord.I will miss our special time and talks.But I know that the Lord was ready for you to be with him. I do Thank him for letting you be with us 78 years so Thanks you for the love and you know that I will always love you mama.(Girlfriend).

“ Hello Mother,

It's me your sunshine. This is really hard but I have so much to say that I didn't get to say the last time we talk but was happy too here your voice.

Every day I would wake up and cry

And people would say keep your head up high but now I realize where you are you're high up by a shining star everybody says, you're in a better place and that I would always see your pretty face and now your watching down on me I just wanted you to see how much you really mean to me i feel you in my heart and no one could break us apart I Miss you so much Ma but its time to let you go the time has come for you to rest, but nevertheless you've done your best. Now its time for us to move on because of you we will stay strong. God saw you getting weary. He did what he Thought was best he came and stood beside you and whispered come and rest you bid everyone a farewell and blew kisses good bye You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why it broke our hearts that you left us but you did not go alone for part of us went with you the day God call you home God is giving us the strength to bare it and courage to take the blow but what it ment to lose you no one but God will know. I will end this by saying you are dearly missed I'll see you in God's Internal Day! So rest in peace with our kiss My dear grandmother who I truly Miss.

Your Loving Granddaughter

“ Delores - My heart pours out to you and your family. Many of your words, I have repeated myself. I am going through the same as you, with your mom. I drive over an hour to care for my mom every week. Each day is so precious. My mom lives with my sister. She can no longer be by herself. I take her a bouquet of flowers once a week. She says, I'm so glad to get them now.

With all that said, It's so important to reflect on the happier memories you shared with your mom. Look at photos and videos; it might be painful at first. But, those memories will help you to heal. "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you". Psalms 55:22 Prayer to God is not an emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with the "God of all comfort", who will comfort us in all our tribulation". We will see your mom again. Then our moms can meet and we will all live in paradise on earth together. I am confident of that. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear mom,
Just wanted to let you know that you were the best mother that a person could have. I am very sad and there is a void that no one can replace in my life. I will miss calling you every Saturday night. It was no task for me to drive to see about you and when I got to where you were, you just smiled and asked how was I doing. I love you and will live this present life to see you again in the future. Its not bye but I'll see you later. Love you,
