“ Dear Family: Today your hearts ache in grief and for good reason. You have lost the backbone, the stabilizing force, the matriarch of your family. I understand that feeling quite well for years ago my family lost the matriarch of our family. She lived to be almost one hundred years old. I remember feeling abandoned, orphaned and even a little afraid because this person had ALWAYS been there in my life from the time that I can remember myself and then to be suddenly gone...it was devastating! It brings to fore just how fleeting life is...like a mist, you are here but a short time and then you're gone. (James 4:14) Even so, they leave beautiful and fond memories of better days gone by. How we yearn for those days because we wish we could be with them again to still show them just how much they mean to us and how much we love them. It was so comforting and reassuring to know that our Loving Creator feels the same way and that's why he has promised us in his Word, the Bible, that soon he will destroy death forever! (Isaiah 25:8) His Son, Jesus Christ, has promised that he will, in due time, awaken our loved ones from the 'sleep' of death to life again (John 5:28,29; 11:11-14,25). It was never God's purpose that man should die and that's why he tells us at Revelation 21:4,5 that soon, all things that cause us mourning, tears, sorrow and pain will be gone for good, including death!! No, we cannot return to better days gone by, however, the very BEST days are yet to come! Our God has: "commanded the blessing, even life for evermore!" (Psalm 133:3) We can rest assured that it shall be so, for we know that he cannot lie. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##
