“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus1:2)###imported-begin###Dorothy Boyd-Carroll###imported-end##

“ Please accept this letter as an expression of sympathy over the lost of your dear loved one. The death of a loved one creates a void beyond all understanding. May the God of all comfort, (2 Corinthians 1:3,4), be a source of comfort to you and your family during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Williams##imported-end##
